

Director of Music
Peace Lutheran Church

The Director of Music will grow and enhance the music ministry of Peace Lutheran in a way that is consistent with our mission, values and theology. Leading people of all ages in music so that they may strengthen their relationship with, and glorify, God. The Director of Music, in conjunction with the Pastor, will coordinate the musical aspects of worship and provide leadership and direction for the Music Ministry Team.

Promote the spiritual life of the congregation and its members through music ministry including the following specific job duties:

- Work with the Pastor to plan and execute music for Sunday worship and other special worship services and events.
- Recruit, equip and shepherd music team members and musicians including but not limited to an Adult Choir.
- Attends to the spiritual and musical growth of singers and instrumentalists with differing abilities.
- Foster opportunities to enhance the music ministries at Peace, including but not limited to: bringing in outside performers and incorporating different musical styles into worship.
- Oversee the maintenance and care of the church's music library and provide technical leadership for musical instruments and other equipment related to music ministry.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in music or 3-5 years of equivalent experience preferred.
- Skilled keyboard player with the ability to lead worship.
- Knowledge of church music and music instruction.
- Strong organizational and communication skills.
- Motivated and self-directed team player who loves working with people of all ages.
- Must be supportive of the theology of Peace Lutheran Church as well as the larger Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (ELCA).

This position reports to the Pastor and collaborates closely with the Music Ministry Team and Church Council. The congregation of Peace currently worships on Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. Special worship services are offered throughout the year. Must be available during evening hours for music practice and special events as needed.

The Director of Music is a part-time, salaried position twelve months of the year.

